

I am seeking the role of Central Region Member for the Ethics Committee to serve with integrity, accountability, and fairness. My goal is to uphold the standards and values of our organization while ensuring transparency and consistency in all decisions. I bring a commitment to listening, objectively evaluating concerns, and fostering trust among members. I believe strong ethics are the foundation of any successful organization, and I am dedicated to protecting that foundation while supporting the growth and unity of our Central Region.