

Work/Life Balance Mission statement

American Culinary Federation advocates Work/Life Balance for all who work in the foodservice industry. To support this goal the organization is dedicated to providing strategies and solutions for all chefs and cooks to attain and sustain physical, emotional and professional balance; and opportunities for growth and development. ACF is dedicated to the creation of resources, innovative programs, webinars, CE classes in order to continue the discussion and dialogue with members for present and future generations of chefs to join the field.
