Special meetings may be called by the Chairperson of ACFEF or a majority of the Board of Trustees. Notice for all meetings shall be sent by the Secretary no less than thirty and no more than sixty days before the meeting. The quorum to conduct business of ACFEF is a majority of voting members. The affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Trustees present and voting at a meeting shall carry any action. The Board of Trustees shall not vote by proxy. Members of the Board of Trustees, or any committee designated by the Board of Trustees, may take any action permitted or authorized by these Bylaws by meeting using any means of communication by which all directors may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting.

ARTICLE VII COMMITTEES

The special committees of ACFEF shall establish operating policies & procedures, which with the exception of the Accrediting Commission must be approved by the Board of Trustees. The committees shall propose budgets to the Board of Trustees of ACFEF for approval annually. All special committees of the ACFEF shall establish their own operating policies and procedures, including the appointment of members and the election of the Chairperson. Any other committees or task forces shall be appointed by the Chairperson of the ACFEF Board of Trustees and approved by the Board of Trustees.

The following are the special committees of ACFEF:

1. American Academy of Chefs ("AAC"). The AAC represents the highest standards of professionalism in the organization, society and industry. The AAC's primary mission is to promote the education of all culinarians by mentoring culinarians, awarding scholarships to students seeking a future in the culinary industry, and by providing grants to professional working chefs looking to further their career. Senior Chefs committee shall be a subcommittee of the American Academy of Chefs.
2. Accrediting Commission. The Accrediting Commission (the "Commission") is an independent commission within ACFEF that grants programmatic accreditation status to qualified post-secondary and secondary savory, baking and/or pastry arts educational programs both nationally and internationally. The Commission shall be independent from ACFEF with respect to the conduct of accreditation activities and determination of accreditation status and shall sustain independent authority and capacity to deploy resources in the service of its mission. The Commission shall consist of ten (10) members and shall independently establish its own operating policies and procedures, including the appointment of its members and the election of its officers. ACFEF shall support the Commission and approve a budget that ensures the Commission has adequate financial, staff, and operational resources to perform its accreditation functions efficiently and effectively.
3. Apprenticeship Committee. The Apprenticeship Committee oversees ACF's culinary training and apprenticeship programs and is responsible for validating culinary techniques.
4. Culinary Team USA. ACF Culinary Team USA is a component of ACFEF for the purpose of promoting culinary competitions as a vehicle for learning and professional development. The ACFEF Chairperson and ACF President will collaborate to appoint the ACF Culinary Team USA Manager. The Manager of Culinary Team USA shall report to the ACFEF Chairperson.

ARTICLE VIII VACANCIES AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

- A. The terms of those holding office in ACFEF by virtue of an office in ACF shall be terminated when their term ends with ACF and/or ACFEF, or if they are removed or resign from their office in ACF and/or ACFEF and their replacement shall assume the vacated ACFEF office upon certification by the Secretary and Treasurer of ACFEF.

- B. Those holding ACFEF office only may be removed by the body that appointed/elected them to that office. The ACFEF Chairperson shall appoint a temporary replacement to fill the vacancy, because of removal or resignation, until a replacement can be appointed / elected.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENTS

The Board of Trustees may approve amendments to these Bylaws by majority vote upon thirty (30) days prior written notice in accordance with policies and procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees. Any amendment to these Bylaws shall be subject to approval by the Board of Governors of ACF.

ARTICLE X
PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, shall govern all meetings and proceedings of ACFEF, except to the extent inconsistent with these Bylaws.
