If 1-3 months after certification expiration:

- Certificants will be granted, upon request, a 90 day grace period, without any additional fees or requirements to complete the recertification process.

If 4-12 months after certification expiration:

- Refreshers up to date (all three if first cycle, sanitation only on second and subsequent cycles).
- Depending on certification level, 10, 15 or 80 CEHs (earned during recertification cycle including 90 day grace period).
- In addition to published recertification fee, a late fee of $150 will apply.

If more than 12 months after certification expiration:

- Candidate must certify based on all current eligibility and testing requirements. Please contact the Certification Department for additional information.

Once Approved

Upon successful completion of recertification, depending on certification level, 1 or 5 years will be added to the expired recertification date.
