

I have declared my candidacy for National President

I will faithfully serve the membership by executing the role of president and will uphold the ACF traditions with honor, integrity, and pride.

Strengthening our membership, reducing our debt, increasing brand awareness, and facilitating change persistent to the changes happening in our industry.

My role as a leader is to expedite the ACF's growth. My plan includes introducing new initiatives to boost both local and national involvement, reaching out personally to members and non-members sharing the value of ACF and our opportunities that membership to those who belong.

I look forward to serving.
