

William J. Tillinghast MBA CEC AAC

Over thirty Years of active membership in the American Culinary Federation holding positions of leadership in local chapter President & Treasurer, along with two terms as the Northeast Regional Vice President and ACF National Treasurer.

Started culinary journey at eleven years of age washing dishes in the Blue Hill Diner, I have had the great opportunity to work in some of the best houses in the Philadelphia area including Cobblestones & 21 West Restaurants and Green Valley & Whitemarsh valley country clubs. Presently waiting for our industry to reopen in the Philadelphia region to start my new position as Chef/Director at The Curtis Institute of Music. After spending 20 years at the Art institute of Philadelphia the last eighteen as program Director

Academic      AOS: Culinary Institute of America
                    BS: Art Institute of Pittsburgh
                    MBA: South University

Military        US Army 1981 to 1989
                    Recalled 1990 Dessert Storm