

William J. Tillinghast MBA CEC AAC
Candidate for ACF National Secretary

The opportunity to serve the members of the American Culinary Federation as the National Secretary and serve on the Board of Directors is an honor and privilege that I am looking forward to if elected. The National Secretaries primary responsibility is to ensure the timely and accurate disbursement of information to and from the federations members . The challenges and opportunities facing our federation and ALL member driven organizations are truly unprecedented at this time.
